Buddies in school!

It has been a tricky time at the moment, to meet with Reception children, but you haven't let that stop you from being an amazing Buddy to your Reception friend. With the importance of this in mind, you are going to prepare a prayer or reflection for your buddy.

This will be used by the Reception teacher and the whole of the class during collective worship or before going home at the end of the day.

Task Three – today, I'd like you to write a short script for this. You need to choose one or two values that you think are important for your buddy and the class to consider.

The next page gives an example...

Step four - writing a prayer or reflection

hear a challenge

Hello (name of your buddy) and Reception! I hope that you are ok.

Let us pray.

Father God,

Thank you for (name of buddy) and all of the children in Reception.

Help everyone to be kind to each other.

Help all of the children to share toys and equipment.

Help them to be a kind friend, ready to help.

Amen

*Hello Reception and (name of buddy). Let us close our eyes and take some time to have a little think together. I have been thinking about how important kindness is. How can you be a kind friend? How can you be kind in the playground? [pause for a moment] How can you be kind in your class? [pause for a moment].
Let's finish with a smile of kindness to each other. Lovely!*

Please hand in your prayer or reflection by via Teams.

I am happy to receive this in any form, such as a photograph of your writing, a PowerPoint or a Word file.
