

There's a power in the music

Words and music by Lin Marsh

When you're feeling lonely and you don't know where to turn,
Hopes and dreams are fading and your bridges start to burn.
Just remember, when you look, a friend is always near,
So let your voice sing out again so everyone can hear:

There's a power in the music, there's a spirit in the song,
When our voices join together, we are fearless, we are one,
And we feel a sense of freedom as it carries us along.
There's a power in the music and a spirit in my song.

Sometimes you feel nervous and at other times you're shy,
Lose your sense of purpose and the will to stay and try.
Then I see you smiling as the music starts to play.
You hear the beat resounding and it blows the clouds away.

There's a power in the music, there's a spirit in the song,
When our voices join together, we are fearless, we are one,
And we feel a sense of freedom as it carries us along.
There's a power in the music and a spirit in my song.

Stand together and we sing as one.
We can change the world with our song.
Spread the message: we are strong and free!
We are sister, we are brother, we are one big family. Ah.

Now your heart is beating to the rhythm of that drum.
Nothing is impossible, a hero you've become.

Singing lifts the spirits, heals the heart and feeds the soul.
Singing makes us stronger, we can reach for any goal.

There's a power in the music, there's a spirit in the song,
When our voices join together, we are fearless, we are one,
And we feel a sense of freedom as it carries us along.
There's a power in the music and a spirit in my song.

There's a power in the music, there's a spirit in the song,
When our voices join together, we are fearless, we are one,
And we feel a sense of freedom as it carries us along.
There's a power in the music and a spirit in my song.
In my song, in my song.
