

At Berkswich CE Primary, our school values are shared by all and underpinned by scripture: "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." John 10:10

Staff

We foster a welcoming, caring and supportive community. We are outward looking, bravely ensuring that empathy for all is expressed through attitudes and action. We drive towards improving the lives of others and promote wellbeing for all.

Children

We caring deeply for others in our school, local communities and the world. When others are having a hard time, we strive to be courageous in trying to understand how they are feeling and offering a helping hand.

We ensure that all are included, cherished and valued. We recognise a diversity of identities, beliefs and backgrounds and embrace the fact that everyone is equal and unique. We celebrate all and champion equity.

We love being a vital part of our class and school, as well as being a valuable member of local and global communities. We all welcome others equally. We celebrate diversity, treating all with dignity.

We are resilient when grappling with challenges or new learning. We demonstrate initiative and drive and motivation when working as part of a group or independently. We are flexible and adapt to the needs of learners and the demands of the role.

We keep going to achieve a goal, meaning that we keep trying even when the going gets tough. We learn to have self-belief in order to persist and to speak out for what we believe is right or needed. We try to reflect God's persevering love.

We expect to approach all with kindness and understanding, treating others how we would like to be treated ourselves. With open minds, we listen to the views of all, modelling good manners and politeness, and demonstrating fairness and equity.

We respect each other and so we are kind and good listeners. Our respect for ourselves is shown in the way that we learn to stay happy, healthy and safe. We care deeply for our school environment and for the world in which we live.

We are accountable for our own actions, delivering our best at all times. We ensure all stakeholders experience excellence through our professional credibility. We are committed to our own and others' personal and professional development.

We are responsible for ourselves, friends and communities, using our talents for the good of others and the planet. This is shown in our attitudes, actions and words and may involve sacrifices, hard work or actions over time.

It is important to be understanding and reflect on how our behaviours and views affect others. We co-operate and collaborate to achieve positive outcomes for all, recognising that teamwork has a highly positive impact on the quality of what can be achieved.

We work together to try to reach a shared goal. We value what others can bring to a task and know that we need to be flexible, bold, considerate and a good listener. We celebrate the contributions of others.
