Questions to improve comprehension

Mrs Wilkinson's Classroom

Choose your favourite sentence from that page. Can you change the verb in that sentence to other possible verbs that would suit the sentence? Choose your favourite one and say why.

Choose a word from the text. What words do we know that have similar meaning? How many other words can we think of that mean the same?

Choose a sentence and say the verb and subject in that sentence. Can you change the subject to make the sentence funnier?

Working on Vocabulary

Can you find a word that describes the character? Think of that character in your head. Now draw a picture of that character and annotate it with adjectives from the book.

Choose an adjective from the text. Say a word that has the same meaning (synonym) and a word that has the opposite meaning (antonym).

Pick any word from the text and use a dictionary to find the meaning of that word.

Find two words that interest you in the text. Can you say two sentences with these words in?

Mrs Wilkinson's Classroom

Can you draw a picture that shows this part of the book? Explain your choice.

Does the character have a problem they need to solve? Can you give them some advice to solve it?

Would you recommend this book? Why or why not? Find a sentence from the book that supports your choice.

What is the main theme of the story? Find a sentence that supports your choice.

What is your favourite sentences in the whole story. Why have you chosen this one?

Pick two characters from the book. What is their relationship and has it changed since the beginning of the story? How do you know?

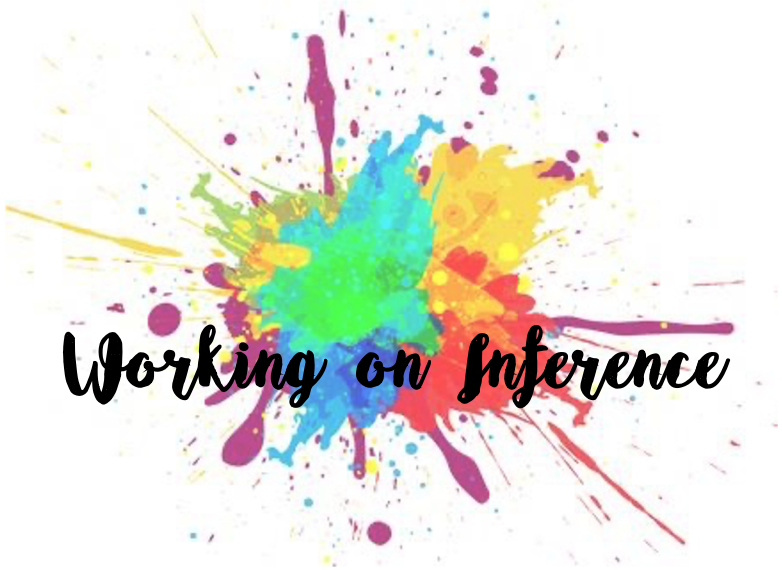

What is the mood of the story? Choose two sentences that led you to this decision.

Mrs Wilkinson's Classroom

Pick on character from the story. How do they speak? Why do they speak like this? Explain why you think this.

Choose a character from your book and explain how they are feeling. Show two places that suggest their feelings.

Look at a character and how they act. What do their actions tell you about the character?

Pick a character from the book. What questions would you ask the character and how do you think they would answer.

Find five of the key events that happen in the story. Pick one character. How does this character feel at these five points? Explain why.

What do you think about the setting of the story? How do you know where it is set? Do you know when it is set? How?

Choose one character from the story. Would you be friends with this character? Explain why or why not.

Mrs Wilkinson's Classroom